Liz Weber, CMC, CSP
President
Weber Business Services, LLC

In the words of one client, “Liz Weber will help you see opportunities you never knew existed.”

As the President of Weber Business Services, LLC, a management consulting, training, and speaking firm headquartered near Harrisburg, PA, Liz provides strategic and succession planning, executive coaching, and comprehensive leadership training to association boards and leadership teams, as well as to businesses and government agencies.

Liz is one of fewer than 100 people in the U.S. to hold both the Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) and Certified Management Consultant (CMC) designations; the highest earned designations in two different professions. She also holds an MBA in International Business.

In addition to writing nine leadership books, and writing her monthly Manager’s Corner column, Liz has also supervised association activities in 129 countries and has consulted with organizations in over 20 countries. Liz’s association leadership experience includes serving on the board and as president for numerous local associations, as well as serving six years as a National Board Director for The National Speakers Association. In her role in as a National Director, Liz twice earned the President’s Award: Once for revamping the Association’s strategic planning process, and once for her leadership of a strategic global task force.
